Season of the Holy Spirit
Welcome Rev. Dianne Deming

Prayer of Preparation

Anne Osdieck

O God of divine Equal Opportunities, you know us all... each one's wants and needs. (Some need more, some less) ... It is not the pay that is our reward. It is your call to the vineyard (that place of grace), where you heap fortunes of everlasting life and love on us. Thank you for your wonderfully constant call to work in your vineyard.

Call to Worship (responsively)

In the prayers and the praise, in the words and the wonder:

we are given enough joy to live each day.

In the justice for the oppressed, in the unexpected generosity for the lost:

we are given enough compassion to use in service each day.

In the promises made to all, in the mercy offered to each:

we are given enough grace to share each day.

Confessing Our Separation from God (unison)

Liturgist

Merciful God, the story of the landowner and the workers turns our ideas about fairness upside down. We may dismiss this story as not really applying to us. But every time we suppose that our faithfulness, our status, our piety gives us a special claim on your favor, we need to hear this story of your abundant grace. Forgive us when we measure the behavior of others against that of ourselves rather than measuring our behavior against yours. Your divine generosity amazes us and calls into question our values and our selfishness. Open our eyes to see beyond our own needs and unclench our hands to share what we have with those in need. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Jesus, Draw Me Close

Rick Found

Jesus, draw me close; Closer, Lord, to You.

Let the world around me fade away.

Jesus, draw me close:

Closer, Lord, to You.

For I desire to worship and obey.
